The Miami Gardens Observer is your Community Newspaper Bringing to you the community events and happenings around South Florida.

The Miami Gardens Observer is a publication unique in its goals; we want to bring you community information and events from this vibrant New City, the surrounding Cities and the world.

The demographic group in this city ranges from elementary to retirees, from low income to very high income and from African Americans, Caribbean's, Hispanics, Asians and White Americans. In Miami Gardens alone there is a population of 105,000 and still growing. It is the third largest city in Miami-Dade County.

We are people serving the community in many ways and this is another way for us to use our talent, in an industry that we love. We have been in the media business for over 15 years working with various media entities in South Florida and the world. We have delivered news door to door, on radio, TV and now print. We are dedicated to our work and would like to empower the citizens of South Florida with our intellectual and journalistic honesty.

Publication:

We are presently a monthly publication with 20,000 copies per issue; this should serve 80,000 residents. (The ratio is 4 people per copy). Our intention is to become a weekly publication by 2010 with the support of the South Florida Community. The newspaper is also online at www.miamigardensobserver.com
